

attention fcc:

I really enjoy my satellite radio.It's clear sound and variety is the perfect tool for my daily listening. Getting local traffic and weather reports are very important to me.I also pay for these services and I think the National association of broadcasters should not have a say to dictate what I listen too.

Thanks

Michael Mizzell